

CHOICES ABERDEEN

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Sessional Development Worker (Youth)
Hours: 10 hours per week
Accountable to: Centre Manager
Salary: £8.50/hr

Job Summary

To support the Relationship Revolution team in developing and delivering creative and engaging youth intervention projects and educational workshops on the subject of positive relationships as agreed by Choices. A sessional worker can expect to grow in leadership and take on more responsibility as they continue in the role.

Main Duties & Responsibilities:

- Develop appropriate learning plans
- Produce and maintain educational materials including media resources
- Deliver educational workshops
- Provide group and one to one support for young people as appropriate
- Train and support volunteer youth workers
- Ensure evaluation of all workshops delivered
- Provide annual statistics and reports of service delivery
- Maintain an elibrary of all relevant research and government papers on relationships and sexual health
- Attend training as required
- Promote the work of Choices at events
- Abide by the policies and respect the ethos of Choices Aberdeen

Essential criteria:

- Excellent communication especially with young people
- Good organisational skills
- A desire to support young people in making positive sexual health choices
- An understanding of child protection issues
- An awareness of youth culture
- The ability to work as part of an organisation which has a Christian ethos
- Able to work in a team environment
- Energetic, self-disciplined and able to work on own initiative
- Computer literate